INTRODUCTION

NanoSafe is a major international conference, held in Grenoble every two years. The conference brings together scientists, researchers and private industries from all around the world to discuss health and safety issues related to nanomaterial.

NanoSafe give them the opportunity to exchange information on their latest research progresses and to share the future trends in research, safe fabrication and use of nanomaterials. This edition will also include topics such as urban and incidental nano objects and nanoparticles for medicine applications.

The conference includes plenary lectures, keynote lectures in addition to contributed papers both oral and poster presentations.

After the great success of the last five conferences, the next edition will be held from November 5th to 9th, 2018 in MINATEC Grenoble, France. About 400 attendees are expected.

An important feature of Nanosafe 2018 will be the exhibition of related equipment, products and services, which will be held at the same time of the conference. We have also decided to propose an attractive sponsoring program. As an exhibitor or sponsor, you will get the opportunity to:

- Present your company and products to professionals from research and industry in the field of nano products, nanoenabled products, nanocharacterisation and nanosafety;
- Increase your visibility in this community.

Please note that the conference program has been structured to allow participants to visit the exhibition area during coffee breaks, lunches and poster sessions.

We look forward to welcome you in Grenoble, France!

PROGRAMME

The Nanosafe 2018 conference topics includes:

1. Measurement and characterization of nano objects (Chairman: Daren Chen)

2. Exposure (Chairman: Christof Asbach)

3. Manufactured nano-objects (Chairman: Wendel Wohlleben)

- 3.1 Nano-objects release from nano-enabled products
- 3.2 Safe-by-Design nano-enabled products and process
- 3.3 Pilot plant production / Industrial issues

4. Risks (Chairman: Keld Alstrup Jensen)

- 4.1 Occupational risk assessment
- 4.2 Environmental risk assessment
- 4.3 Tools and commercial equipment
- 4.4 Risk management
- 4.5 Nano responsible development and sustainability

5. Nano objects and Health / Hazard (Chairman: Claude Emond)

- 5.1 Toxicology
- 5.2 Environmental interactions of nanomaterials
- 5.3 Safe use of nano objects for medicine applications

6. Regulation / Standardization (Chairman: Anthony Bochon)

7. Urban particles (Chairman: David Pui)

SATELITTE MEETINGS:

- LabEx Serenade
- EquipEx NanoID
- CERASAFE

WORKSHOPS:

- Blueprint for nanosafety platform development and sustainability (BNP-DS)
- Safety aspects in pilot lines, an EPPN-NSC joint session
- Final workshop from the NanoMONITOR and CERASAFE projects

NETWORKING EVENT:

- NanoSafety Cluster speed meeting

THE EXHIBITION CENTER

The MINATEC innovation campus is home to 3,000 researchers, 1,200 students, and 600 business and technology transfer experts on a 20-hectare space state-of-the art campus. An international hub for micro and nanotechnology research, the MINATEC campus is unlike any other R&D facility in Europe.

The MINATEC campus has dedicated special-events facilities (900 m²), ranging from 20-person conference rooms to a 400-seat amphitheater. These spaces are available to researchers for their scientific events, and are also used to promote MINATEC's micro and nanotechnology research.
